TEACHERS
FEEDBACK (2018-2020)

TEACHERS' FEEDBACK (2018-2020)

The teachers' feedback was collected through a questionnaire. Total 100 responses were received in the form of a chart on various attributes like interest generated by teacher, sincerity, provision of sufficient time, integration with course, communication skills, knowledge, using aided tools, ability to design tests and assignments etc. The feedback was taken offline and the final survey is based on the response of 100 students of (2018-2020). The analysis done on the observation of the questionnaire filled up by the students reveals that:-

1. The feedback says that students get interest in the class while teachers deliver their lecture, they make it more interesting using aided tools with good communication skills. The teachers are very efficient and 98% of syllabus completed on time.
2. Curriculum development, examination and evaluation is an important part of the teaching. About 85% of the teachers are involved in the curriculum development while 15% are not involved in any curriculum development. 94.6% of the teachers do evaluation.
3. Teachers have designed all the tests/ assignments/ quizzes/ projects very well to evaluate students understanding of the course.
4. The teachers always support their students both in and out of the class so that the students are able to access the teachers easily only to get further help in the study.
5. The teachers have good command on their subject. They have good knowledge of latest technologies used in study to provide a broader perspective of any topic.
6. Maximum number of teachers have good communication skills which helps the students to understand the conveyed content. However, rest of the teachers are sometimes become unable to clarify any doubt.
7. Overall, the feedback on the teachers' performance in the institute which was rated by the students reveals that- the teachers are sincere and committed to their duty and are punctual

Among Students the level of disengagement and frustration is very high. Learning objectives can be compulsory but if they become strain, learning objectives can be approached cleverly. Learning should be activity based and interactive too.

TEACHERS' FEEDBACK (2022-2024)

The following observation on teachers' feedback has done on the basis of questionnaire filled up by 75 students. The students responded to the various parameters rating them on the rating scale from 10-0. They also gave their comments and suggestions at the bottom of the question table. The observation says-

- Maximum number of students have given number 10 on the rating scale to the attributes such as assignment discussion, class management, coverage of syllabus, illustrations with example, subject matter competence, use of technology in teaching, dressing sense, communication skills and attitude towards profession.
- About 60% of students have rated 9 on the rating scale to the parameter speed of presentation of the content. It reveals that teachers need to improve their speed of delivering the content neither slow nor fast but in medium pace.
- 25% of the students have rated 7 to the dressing sense of the teachers. They have suggested the teachers to improve their dressing style which is necessary indeed.
- 80% students rated the teachers 10 on the rating scale in the parameter of nature and character of the teacher. The teachers are helpful, easily accessible and down to earth.
- The parameters like coverage of syllabus and class management are rated 09 on the rating scale. The observation says that teachers are able to complete the syllabus on the given time period and then maximum time they gave to clear their doubts and to do revision.

SOS J.N. KAUL INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION, BHIMTAL

Affiliated to Kumaun University, Nainital & Approved by NCTE

- The parameters like explanation clarity and use of technology in teaching is rated 08 on the rating scale that showcases that the teachers make less use of the information technology tools to make the clear explanation of the content.
- Maximum number of students rated 08 on the rating scale to the male teachers regarding the parameter -attitude towards students of opposite gender. They suggested that male teachers need to be slightly more flexible towards the students of opposite gender so that they could be easily accessible to them also.

PARENT'S FEEDBACK FORM (INSTITUTION) 2018-20

The Parent's Feedback Survey (PFS) was conducted by the institute on various dimensions. The questionnaire (five-point Likert scale) was set as per the NAAC guidelines. The survey conducted by online and the identity of the parents is not revalidated result of this survey is based on the response of 98 students of (2018-20). The analysis of the Parents' Satisfaction Survey (PSS) is revealed that- Here's a 09-points analysis summering the overall feedback for the college based on the provided criteria.

- ❖ Environment rated as very good, indicating a conducive and satisfactory atmosphere
- ❖ Infrastructure was good, suggesting that the facilities meet expectations.
- ❖ Faculty rated as average, indicating a need for enhancement in teaching quality or expertise.
- ❖ Fee structure are described as aligned with university norms, implying fairness and transparency in fee- related matters.
- ❖ Evaluated as good, indicating effective practical training and skill development.
- ❖ Library is good with a satisfactory collection and resources.
- ❖ Skill development rated as ranging from good to average, suggesting variability in effectiveness.
- ❖ Quality of support material rated as good but in need of updates, implying that while useful, materials could benefit from being more current.
- ❖ Overall rating generally falls within the range of very good to good, reflecting a positive but balanced view with room for improvement in certain areas.

The feedback highlights strengths in the environment, infrastructure, and training, while identifying opportunities for improvements in faculty quality and the updating of support materials.

PARENT'S FEEDBACK FORM (INSTITUTION) 2020-22

The Parent's Feedback Survey (PFS) was conducted by the institute on various dimensions. The questionnaire (five-point Likert scale) was set as per the NAAC guidelines. The survey conducted by online and the identity of the parents is not revalidated result of this survey is based on the response of 98 students of (2020-2022). The analysis of the Parents' Satisfaction Survey (PSS) is revealed that- Here's a 09-points analysis summing the overall feedback for the college based on the provided criteria.

- The college environments are rated as excellent, providing a conducive atmosphere for learning and personal development.
- The infrastructure is very good, suggesting that the facilities and physical resources available to students are well- maintained and effective.
- The faculty is rated as good, indicating competent and knowledgeable teachers, though there might be some improvements.
- The fee structure is also rated as good, implying that it is reasonable and offers value for the education and services provided.
- The quality of support materials, such as textbook, are considered average, suggesting there may be a need for better or more up -to -date materials.
- Training programs at the college are excellent, indicating strong hands-on learning opportunities and practical exposure for students.
- Skill development programs are mixed with some rated very good and others good, showing variability in how effectively different skills are taught.
- The library facilities are good, providing adequate resources for study and research, though it may not be exceptional.
- Student support services are rated as good, indicating that students receive adequate assistance when needed.

The overall feedback received college positively from parents with strengths in the environments, infrastructure, training, and skill development. Areas such as support materials could benefit from improvement.
